

That's what we're talking about here: whether the spirit of love is in charge of our thought forms.
And if it is, we're more charitable; we give people a break.
We bless instead of condemn. We support instead of deride.
We forgive instead of attack. We love instead of fear.

Marianne Williamson

This reflection is courtesy of Parkdale United Church, Calgary, AB.

www.parkdaleunitedcalgary.net