Sunday Zoom Virtual Movie Night
November 20, 6:30 pm

Sit back in the comfort of your own living room, with a cup of tea or coffee and a tasty dessert or popcorn.
Join others to watch a movie together, followed by lively discussion.

This month's movie is

Lawrence, an aging, lonely civil servant falls for Gina, an enigmatic young woman. When he takes her to the G8 Summit in Reykjavik, however, their bond is tested by Lawrence's professional obligations. We invite you to join us for a warm comedy drama, written by Richard Curtis (Love Actually, Notting Hill, Four Weddings and a Funeral). The movie offers the wonderful Bill Nighy and Kelly McDonald in a thoughtful movie reflecting on what can be done to respond both to global poverty and to individual loneliness.
